Hi Brendan - thanks, yes I saw this and have alerted Directors to this.

And separately raised a question about the difference in the cost.

Appreciate the help.

Cheers

Hugh

Hi Hugh,

I've discovered why Chris's emails have been going into the "catch-all" mailbox for siophavards.

It is because he has been sending them to non-existent email addresses, namely the ones you can see below for Clive etc.

It would seem these email addresses have not been set up as I had suspected.

See also the quote for hosting the existing siophavards domain. Cost £333 plus VAT, versus the current cost of £34.99 plus £15 for a dedicated IP address, which Modern are not providing. There is no need for Havards to be wasting money like this.

Best wishes,

Brendan (from our main account email - rarely used - so might go into Spam.)

Thanks Chris,

Much appreciated, we will work your order to provide website hosting for your old website (www.siophavards.cymru) for 12 months @ £333 + vat.

The 12 month period will begin when the website is transferred to us.
There is no 12 months free period with this site because we are not building it for you.

This includes UK based performance website hosting, email addresses and 1GB of space and your domain name. We will also make sure that this account is on the same server as the shop so that it has the associated benefits.

Please note that all preliminary work is chargeable in the event of cancellation.

If you wish to cancel your order please email us with notification before any preliminary work has been done, making sure you receive an email acknowledgment by return. Without our acknowledging email no cancellation will have been deemed to have been made.

If after 6 months your order has not been completed because you have not given us the information or proof approvals need to do so, you agree to pay for the work done so far. Furthermore, if your order is cancelled at any time, you also agree to pay for the work done so far. These payments will then be deducted from the price of your order when it has been finished or the new price, if you decide to re-order a cancelled job.

All the very best,

Trevor
